Nevins, Mrs. Oliver Dwight Norton, Mrs. Wood Parker, Mrs. Edmund J. Sinclair, Mrs. Edgar Van Etten, Mrs. Bartow S. Weeks and Mrs. Rawson L. Wood.

Six afternoon musicales and three evening concerts will be given this season by the New York Mozart Society, of which Mrs. Noble McConnell is the founder and president. The musicales are to be in the Rose Room of the Hotel Astor on Saturday, November 2, December 7, January 4, February 1, March 1 and April 5, and the principal artists will be Alma Gluck, Narama Toye, Adeline Gence and her dancers, Irene Schauer, Rose Olitzka, Isabelle Bouton and Henri La Bonte, assisted by the Mozart Society choral members. A reception to the members and guests will precede the programme.

John McCormack and Eugene Ysaie will be the soloists at the first of the concerts on Wednesday, December 19, Mme. Schumann-Heink on February 19 and Geraldine Farrar on April 16. They will be assisted by the Mozart Choral under the direction of Arthur Claassen. At the conclusion of the programme there will be dancing.

The officers of the club in addition to the President are Mrs. Charlotte B. Wilbour, first vice-president, Mrs. Homer Lee, second vice-president, Mrs. Claude Montague Rivers, third vice-president, Mrs. Clarence Burns, fourth vice-president, Mrs. Ella Louise Henderson, treasurer, Mrs. Frederic C. Stevens, recording secretary, and Mrs. F. MacDonald Sinclair, corresponding secretary.

The directors are Mrs. Adolph J. Wells, Mrs. John Kurrus and Mrs. William B. Walker. On the reception committee are Miss Ella Louise Henderson and Mrs. Herbert S. Crawford, while Mrs. Samuel G. Estabrook is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

Besides the musicales and concerts, the president, Mrs. Noble McConnell, will give a number of receptions and dances at her home, 495 West End avenue, for the choral members and ushers and bachelor girls.

Mrs. Arthur Elliot Fish, president of the Free Industrial School for Crippled Children, has announced the dates for the musicales to be held this winter for the benefit of the school. They are to be at the Plaza on the mornings of February 3, 10, 17 and 24 and will be in charge of Mrs. George O. Cole.

Meetings are being held every Thursday morning at Happy Day House, 236 Second avenue, to complete plans for the annual bazaar for the benefit of the Little Mothers Aid Association, of which Mrs. Clarence Burns is president. This year it is to be a bazaar of all nations, with each booth representing a different country and the young women in charge dressed in native peasant costumes. It will be held on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, December 7, in the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria.

A new club has been added to the already long list. It is called the Technology Club and will have the Plaza for its meet-ception which followed afterward at the home of the bride, Virginia Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend left after the wedding reception for an extended wedding trip. They will live in Garden City, L. I.

Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid arrived from England a week ago yesterday, and since then they have been at their home in Madison avenue. Their stay here will be brief and they will soon return to London to take up their residence at Dorchester House, the American Embassy in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, who have been at Staatsburg, N. Y., since their return from England, are entertaining a house party there at their country place. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and Mr. and Mrs. Livingston Beeckman went from Newport to join the party.

The Earl of Leven and Sidney Herbert have been visiting Mrs. Ogden Goelet and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goelet in Newport. Mr. Herbert is a son of the late Sir Michael Henry Herbert, who married Mrs. Goelet's sister, Miss Lella Wilson. His father was at one time the British Ambassador to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldorf Astor, after a brief visit to relatives here, sailed early Wednesday morning on the Lusitania. It was their first visit here in six years.

Ex-Commodore and Mrs. Arthur Curtis-James, who are yet in Newport, will sail from this port early next month on their yacht Aloha to cruise in the Mediterranean. It is their intention to remain abroad until the early part of April. Among their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Slade, Andrew P. Alvord and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Matheson of this city. Some others may be added to the party, for whom an interesting cruise has been planned.

Miss Edith Gracie, who made her debut in Washington society last spring, will be in New York frequently during the coming winter. She is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Archibald Gracie, her mother having been Miss Constance Schack of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Taylor, has been passing the summer in Richmond Springs with her parents and her grandfather, Robert Taylor. She will be one of the debutantes of the winter.

Craig Wadsworth, who has recently been appointed secretary to the American Embassy at Toheran, will sail on October 24 to take up his new duties. Mr. Wadsworth was at one time attached to the American Embassy in London.

Mrs. French Vanderbilt has decided to spend part of the winter in Egypt. She will be at the Ritz-Carlton for some time before sailing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. C. Smith will be the first to give a dance in the new room of the Ritz-Carlton. It will place about Christmas time and be given for their daughters, the Margaret and Madeleine Smith, have already been introduced to

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller Graham, who arrived from Europe recently, have gone to their country place in Santa Barbara, Cal.

A series of subscription dances known as the May Class has been organized by Miss Henrietta B. Wilmerding to be given at Delmonico's on Thursday nights, December 5 and 26, January 16 and February 6. The patronesses include Mrs. S. Montgomery Roosevelt, Mrs. Ferdinand Sands, Mrs. Sidney de Kay, Mrs. A. Clinton Wilmerding and Mrs. Frederick Southack.

The committee will include Mrs. Donald Campbell, Mrs. Alexander von Gontard, the Misses Emily de Neufville, Eva Ingersoll Brown, Alice Guernsey, Matilda Fillet, Marian Floyd Whitman, Beulah Hepburn, Irma Degener and Mathilde Mourraile; also Hjalmar H. Boyesen, John W. Southack, Mason A. Stone, Jr., Edmund W. Peaselee, Howard J. Miller, Harold H. Jacobs, Gardiner Trowbridge, Edward O'Neal Shotwell, Lauren Carroll, Albert M. Handy, Walter R. Jones, James M. Magie, Donald Campbell, Augustus Wynkoop, Willard Wadsworth and William Degener, Jr.

NOTES OF WESTSIDE SOCIETY.

With the return of people to town plans are being made for the winter's entertainments. The season promises to be very brilliant, for there are a large number of debutantes to be presented and naturally there will be no end of dinners, dances and theatre parties in their honor, in addition to the usual subscription dances, card parties and musicales, not to take into consideration the weddings and the many festivities in connection with them.

Dates have been decided upon for nearly all the subscription dances. The Gramercy Guild, one of the most popular classes, will meet for the first time this season on Friday, December 6. There are to be three other dances in the series, December 17, January 17 and 31, and all will be held at Delmonico's. The patronesses for this season are Mrs. H. Henry Bertram, Mrs. Micanor Bolet, Mrs. Grovone V. Converse, Mrs. August Grenet, Mrs. A. Howard Hopping, Mrs. C. C. Kennedy, Mrs. George E. Kilgore, Mrs. Joseph J. O'Donohue, Mrs. Henry V. Singhi and Mrs. Marie J. Taylor.

The New Assemblies are another popular class which holds its meetings at Delmonico's. This class, which was organized several years ago by Mrs. Wendell C. Phillips, has a full membership and a long waiting list. The cotillon is dispensed with the general dancing being in order at all the meetings, which this winter are to be on December 4, January 3 and 24, and February 7. In addition to Mrs. Phillips, the patronesses are Mrs.

Lawrence Carr and Dr. Thomas A. Kenyon.

The first of the St. Christopher League dances will be on Friday, December 6, and will be followed by others on December 20 and January 10 and 24. All the meetings will be held at the Plaza.

The Tuesday stions, the series of musicales organized last season by Mrs. Anson Dudley Bramhall, will be held in the new ballroom of the Ritz this winter instead of at the Plaza, which was their home last year. Instead of sitting in rows, as is customary at such affairs, small tables will be placed about the ballroom, where the members and their guests may enjoy tea and light refreshments while listening to the programme.

December 3 is the date for the first musicale and the others will be on the first Tuesdays in January, February, March and April. Among the artists will be David Bispham, Mrs. Rappold, Mme. Corinne Rider-Kelsey, Rudolph Gaus, the Swiss pianist, Miss Irene Schauer, Claude Cunningham, Miss Anna Case and William Wade Hinchaw of the Metropolitan Opera House, Mme. Marie Cavan, and Miss Margaret Keyes of the Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Company, the Philadelphian, Mme. Narama Toye, Oscar Seagle, Paul Kefer, Chevalier Salvatore Giordana and Signor Adriano Ariani, the Italian pianist.

Serving on the membership committee are Mrs. Bernard M. Baruch, Mrs. Simon Baruch, Mrs. Clarence Burns, Mrs. Inez Emden, Mrs. W. W. Ford, Mrs. John Strong Foster, Mrs. Albert H. Gleason, Mrs. John H. Griesel, Miss Florence Guernsey, Mrs. William Tod Helmut, Mrs. Samuel M. Jarvis, Mrs. Stephen J. Leonard, Mrs. Arthur Garfield Leonard, Mrs. Emerson MacMillan, Mrs. Euphebert
